Ministerial Musings

Good Grief!

One of my all-time favorite comic strip characters is Charlie Brown. And now, as the calendar officially has flipped to October, I cannot help but think of Lucy duping Charlie Brown into trying to kick the football. Everybody, including Charlie Brown, knows that Lucy is going to whisk it away at the last second causing Charlie to fall on his back. GOOD GRIEF!

Charlie Brown first uttered those words, “Good Grief,” way back in 1954. The expression, “Good Grief,” actually goes back quite a bit. After being used commonly in the late 1800’s, it was included in the English Dialect Dictionary in 1900. These days you do not hear it very much. It has been expressed by other more colorful oxymorons such as “Holy C---!” Ahh, but we have come such a long way...

I always have been fascinated by the term. “Good Grief.” What is it that is so good about grief? Grief generally is what we feel when we have experienced a loss or something unpleasant in our lives. So, I did some research. Apparently, the expression is a euphemism. People began to substitute the word, grief, for God, because to say, “Good God,” back then would have been regarded as blasphemous. But then to say, “Good God,” in response to a bitter event seemed just as contradictory.

After giving thought to it though, isn’t it the perfect expression? Isn’t it an ideal mini affirmation in response to some unexpected difficult happening in our lives along with whatever painful feelings may be attached to such an event? God is good all the time with no exceptions, even when bad things happen. It can be difficult to remember that let alone live it, but it does not make it any less so.

Likewise, even grief is good if we can be in that knowing that God is good. Feelings are good providing we embrace the painful ones as a call to be present to Presence, and not as a place to dwell.

The calendar has turned. Like it or not, resist it or not, our thoughts and attitudes will continue to transition as the days grow shorter and colder. Very likely the pandemic will take a serious psychological toll as the weather restricts and confines us even more. It the days and months ahead, the Unity message provides a reason to come alive rather than to stew. Maybe a daily mantra – a prayer can point us in the right direction. My suggestion – GOOD GRIEF! Suddenly it all makes sense. You go, Charlie Brown!

Peace,

Rev. Mike

Silent Auction

Starting with the Parking Lot Walkathon on Saturday, October 10th, there will be a safe venue allowing people interested to view items that are being auctioned, as well as online.

We are seeking contributions of new items that can be included in the auction (with the exception of artwork and antiques). There also are opportunities to be creative! Here are just a few ideas that can be explored ...

- Perhaps you have a special service that can be offered such as music or art lessons?
- Maybe you can assemble a gift basket of wine and cheese, or coffees or teas?
- If you have a connection or relationship with a restaurant or service in our community, perhaps you can solicit a gift certificate?
- Are you a gifted seamstress or cook?

We also are looking for volunteers to assist us in putting this together. There is a minimum amount of organizational work involved. If you are open possibly to giving some time, please contact Bobbi Severson bsever4785@gmail.com

If you have something to contribute or have any questions, please notify our church office: churchoffice@unityoffoxvalley.org. Whatever you may have to offer will be much appreciated and tax deductible.

Tailgate Trick or Treat

Let's not let the pandemic ruin our Halloween fun!

You may be wondering how we can safely social-distance "Trick or Treat" this year? Well, as the saying goes, "When there is a will, there is a way!"

For this event, cars will be parked several feet from other cars so that our costumed friends will have plenty of space to wander from car-to-car without coming too close to each other. Please arrive no later than 1:15 pm so that we can ensure all cars are safely social-distanced.

Please bring only wrapped, store-bought treats as well as hand sanitizer! Adults, with masks and sanitized or gloved hands, will hand out the treats from their cars. Gloves are strongly encouraged and will be available.

It's still important that we all cover our mouth and nose to protect other people. Instead of letting the mask ruin the costume, let us embrace it with some creative "Power of Imagination"! Many superheroes wear masks and gloves, so maybe the youth - and even the adults, too - can make it a focal point of their costume!

We appreciate everyone's cooperation to make this a fun, safe Tail Gate Trick or Treat" with our Unity Family!

For more info., please contact Mary Nowroozi: marynowroozi@comcast.net

Prayer Chaplain Ministry

"Our real source of help with every need is the Holy Spirit within; and as we keep poised in Spirit, we find ways to reach others in Spirit and call out the best in them and to understand them in a wonderful new way." (Myrtle Fillmore)

During these uncertain times, as all of us continue to experience a different way of living and interacting, it's important to remember that, in Truth, we are whole and perfect. If there are times when outer appearances seem overwhelming, that is when we encourage you to reach out to whatever helps you to remember that the “real source of help with every need is the Holy Spirit within.”

Unity's foundation is prayer and meditation. Prayer Chaplains, dedicated to carry on this sacred legacy, are trained to:

Hold Spiritual Space;
Lovingly Listen
Pray Out Loud
Hold Confidentiality

Your Prayer Chaplains, Eliza Sutherland, Wanda Faye Holmes, Lucy & Carl Klemaier, Maria Cosentino, Mary Nowroozi, Bobbi Severson and Marie Manella, are committed to making periodic Caring Calls to all our members. We make these calls to support you, our spiritual family, with your prayer needs. When we pray with you, we hold everything said in confidence, placing your requests in the sacred space of limitless possibilities of God's love; that place we often are unable to see for ourselves. If you have not been receiving prayer calls and want to start now, please contact the church office at 630-879-1115 (M-Tu) or churchoffice@unityoffoxvalley.org (M-Th) and a Prayer Chaplain will be in touch.

As we move into the fall months, we hope the time when we can gather and pray in person grows closer. Meanwhile, we encourage you to continue to take care of yourselves; wear your masks in public spaces, practice physical distancing, and call on us if you need prayer support in between our calls.

Blessings and hugs,
Bobbi and Marie

The Prayer of Protection

Written by James Dillet Freeman

The Light of God surrounds you.
The Love of God enfolds you.
The power of God protects you.
The Presence of God watches over you.

The Mind of God guides you.
The Life of God flows through you.
The Laws of God direct you.
The Peace of God abides within you.

The Joy of God uplifts you.
The Strength of God renews you.
The Beauty of God inspires you.
Wherever you are, God is!
And all is well. Amen.

The Prayer of Faith

By Hannah More Kohaus

God is my help in every need;
God does my every hunger feed;
God walks beside me, guides my way
Through every moment of this day.

I now am wise, I now am true,
Patient and kind, and loving, too;
All things I am, can do, and be,
Through Christ the Truth, that is in me.

God is my health, I can't be sick;
God is my strength, unfailing, quick;
God is my all, I know no fear,
Since God and Love and Truth are here.

Volunteer Ministry

Oh so fast, yet oh so slow is kind of how my summer felt. Yes, I did take my annual trip to Washington State, but it certainly felt different this time and a little out of sync. Not complaining by any means, I had a wonderful time and broke my home routine for something different. What does this have to do with volunteering? Covid and being gone for a little extra time has left me feeling not so connected with what needs to be done for our church family. I have had to ask myself, how do we keep our volunteering momentum when so many of our activities have been postponed this year, or taken on a new look? How do I think out of the box, so to speak, to rally myself and our wonderful spiritual community?

As I write that sentence, gratitude comes to mind, because we have such a wonderful ministry going on behind the scenes. We are still hosting our monthly Healing Service, Classes, and our Sunday Service for adults and our youth. Volunteers participate in all of those activities and they couldn't happen without that love and support. So thank you to those Angel helpers that keep us all connected virtually and sometimes physically. WE ARE SO BLESSED!!!

AND WE DO HAVE OCTOBER ACTIVITIES. . . . Our Parking Lot Walkathon in the Church Parking lot, on Saturday October 10th!! This is a fun...fundraiser! Remember how we used to do Crop Walk? Get your walking shoes on, contact sponsors, and let's have some fun!!! Thank you Kathleen Malick for being our treat provider after the walk!!! Along with that we are doing a Silent Auction from October 17th thru the 25th. I am told some of the items might be on display for a peek at the Walk A Thon! Thank you Dawn Staszak for coordinating this event. If you have any questions, you can contact Dawn: dawn\_311@yahoo.com.

As I finish this, I don't think we have lost our momentum or our desire to help, we have just had to take it in a different direction for the time being!!!!

In Gratitude and Blessings!!!

Bobbi Severson

Green Team

In spite of our absence from the Green Team events, we at Unity of Fox Valley, must understand and enact consistent methods of being Green, even in these troubled COVID-19-related times.

However small, we can do our parts: Recycle, including polystyrene which community pick-ups will not take; eschew using chemicals in gardens; and, understand the relevance of climate change. The latter is real, not political. We must think of the future of the following generations.

The fires in dry lands in the West, the excessive hurricane damaging wind and water, and the changing nature of the coastlines in three geographic dimensions, are all propelled by climate change.

Be aware! Understand! Take action! Be Green!
